LPR 4.2(b)

Case No. 1:22-cv-01121-DAK-DBP

Judge Dale A. Kimball
Magistrate Judge Dustin B. Pead

Jury Demanded

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Pursuant to Local Patent Rule 4.1(b) [now 4.2(b)], the parties have met and conferred regarding claim terms and phrases for the Court to construe. The parties were unable to agree on ten terms for construction. Accordingly, pursuant to LPR 4.2(b), five terms are allocated collectively to all plaintiffs and five terms are allocated collectively to all defendants.

I. Terms Allocated to Plaintiffs

Claim Terms and Phrases for the Court to Construe	Plaintiff's Proposed Constructions	Defendants' Proposed Construction	35 U.S.C. § 112(f) Elements
fastener protrusion	A component that secures one object to another and extends beyond a surface	Plain ordinary meaning	N/A
fastener housing	A structure that contains or surrounds a fastening mechanism	Plain ordinary meaning	N/A
disposed within a thickness	Positioned inside the depth dimension of a material or structure	Plain ordinary meaning	N/A
two magnets	Two magnetic elements that work together	Plain ordinary meaning	N/A
integrally secured	Permanently attached to form a unified whole	Plain ordinary meaning	N/A

II. Terms Allocated to Defendants

Defendants do not believe any claim construction is needed, and that the plain ordinary meaning should apply.

III. Conclusion

The parties respectfully request that the Court construe these terms and phrases in accordance with the briefing schedule established by the Local Patent Rules.

Respectfully Submitted,

/Brandon J. Leavitt/
